

Notification of Request for Authorization under the Degree-Granting Institutions Act

Date posted: January 25, 2013
Institution: Grand Canyon University
Current status: Authorized to advertise and recruit for its programs offered via distance learning
Nature of request: Authorization to advertise and recruit in Washington State for an additional degree program
Proposed program: Bachelor of Arts in Digital Arts with emphases in: Production and Screenwriting

Background:

Grand Canyon University is a private, for-profit university located in Phoenix, AZ. It has been accredited by the North Central Association of Colleges and Schools-Higher Learning Commission (NCA-HLC) since 1968.

Nature of the review:

Prior to granting authorization to advertise and recruit for new degree programs in Washington State, the Washington Student Achievement Council /Degree Authorization reviews elements such as program outcomes, course requirements, method of course delivery, faculty credentials, and student services.

The program to be offered by Grand Canyon University appears to meet the requirements of the Degree-Granting Institutions Act.

Information on the additional program can be found on the Grand Canyon University website at:

Bachelor of Arts in Digital Arts with an emphasis in Production

Bachelor of Arts in Digital Arts with an emphasis in Screenwriting

Timeline:

The Council will accept comments on this application until February 8, 2013.

Any individuals with knowledge that may indicate the institution and/or the program does not meet the authorization requirements of WAC 250-61 are requested to submit comments to:

Degree Authorization.

If you would like to know more about the current law and regulations that govern the program, they can be found at the following links: the statute is RCW 28B.85 and the regulation is WAC 250-61.